Remarks: Located in the heart of Marquette, Iowa, this property offers a functional and modern living space on the upper level, with a main floor commercial space once used as a bakery but has unlimited business potential. A very unique feature to this property is the old icehouse that the property was built around. You could also put a garage door back in to have an attached garage space. Built in 1997, this property provides convenient access to local attractions such as the Mississippi River, nearby wineries, and antique shopping. The exterior features a deck, patio area, and porch for outdoor relaxation.

Minutes away from boat landings and a short drive to regional highlights like Pikes Peak State Park and Effigy Mounds National Monument.
